

JOURNEYS IN MEDICINE SYMPOSIUM

The Interface of Immigration and Patient Care at Johns Hopkins Medicine

Oct. 3, 2019

The Johns Hopkins Hospital
Sheikh Zayed Auditorium, Room 2119A
Noon to 1:30 p.m.

Oct. 10, 2019

Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center
Asthma & Allergy Center, Grossi Auditorium
Noon to 1:30 p.m.

The Johns Hopkins Medicine Office of Diversity and Inclusion, Centro SOL and the Hopkins Familia Employee Resource Group are sponsoring this symposium to address (1) the challenges/currentcrises related to immigrant health, (2) the rights of immigrants in receiving health care and (3) the role of Johns Hopkins security.

Panelists

Sara Polk
Assistant Professor of Pediatrics
Medical Director, Children's Medical Practice
Clinic, Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center

Joseph Carrese
Professor of Medicine
Chair, Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center
Ethics Committee

Tina Tolson
Senior Director of Operations
Language Access Services,
Johns Hopkins Medicine International

Connor Scott
Acting Vice President for Security
The Johns Hopkins University

Susana Velarde
Assistant Director of Operations Patient
Services, Language Access Services,
Johns Hopkins Health System

Please RSVP at bit.ly/JHMJourney

JOHNS HOPKINS
MEDICINE